Animal Shelter Hosts its 4th Open House on September 27th

PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY, VIRGINIA . . . Gather up the family (including the family pets – non aggressive and leashed, please!) and join the staff of the Prince William County Police Animal Control Bureau for a free open house on Sunday, September 27, 2009, from noon to 4 p.m. The festivities – which will be held rain or shine – will take place at the Animal Shelter, 14807 Bristow Road in the Manassas area.

Those participating include the Department's Mounted Patrol Unit horses and members as well as members of the Department's K-9 Unit who will be on hand with their gear and available to answer questions about the unit.

The Mattaponi Kennel Club will do a rally obedience demonstration. Chesapeake Rock N Rovers will perform a musical freestyle demonstration. The Virginia Search and Rescue Dog Association will also do a short demo.

There will be free food, door prizes and children's activities – including a moon bounce. Other activities include tours of the Animal Shelter and the Children's Farm. Booths will also be on site from area rescue groups and veterinarians. This is the fourth Open House that has been hosted by the Shelter since 2004.
