What Do You Really Want to Do with Your Life?

Bull Run Regional Library offers Careers Workshop -What do you really want to do with your life? On Saturday, November 7, 10:30 a.m. Are you in a rut or feeling stifled in your current career? Are you a young adult wondering about your future? Dave Jerge is a career consultant who has presented his workshop to a wide variety of participants ranging from high school students to professionals (such as attorneys, CPAs, engineers, computer programmers, educators, career counselors and managers of large organizations). In this workshop you will focus on lifetime goals, the motivation for your choice of career, and the strategies that should be considered based on the chosen goals.

To reserve your place in this free program you may register in person at Bull Run Regional Library, 8051 Ashton Avenue, Manassas, VA, or call 703-792-4500 (voice); 703-792-4524 (TTY). Sign language interpretation or other reasonable accommodation is available if requested three weeks prior to the program date.
