Santa Claus in Camp by Thomas Nast.
Harper's Weekly, January 3, 1863.

In December of 1862, artist Thomas Nast made one of the first known illustrations of Santa Claus. Santa was shown giving gifts to soldiers in the field at Fredericksburg, Virginia during the American Civil War. This year, Santa will dust off that old suit he wore back then and make an appearance at Ben Lomond Historic Site in Manassas.

Visitors can make old-time Pomander balls with citrus fruit and cloves and decorations for their trees at home.
